ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

WORLD RESOURCES INSTITUTE FUND

TO: D.C. Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs, Corporation Division, Washington, D.C.

We, the undersigned natural persons of the age of twenty-one years or more, acting as incorporators, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation pursuant to the District of Columbia Non-Profit Corporation Act:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is World Resources Institute Fund.

SECOND: The period of duration is perpetual and the corporation shall have no members.

THIRD: The corporation is organized and will be operated exclusively for the benefit of, to perform the functions of, and to carry out the purposes of World Resources Institute, an organization which is exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) and which is not a private foundation by virtue of its qualification under sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi), and the corporation shall be operated, supervised, and controlled by World Resources Institute. In pursuance of these general purposes, the corporation may:

    a) sponsor research, seminars, and produce reports, and engage in like activities designed to address problems of global resource management and to protect the world's environment;

    b) provide funds to World Resources Institute to enable it to accomplish its charitable purposes; and

    c) do all things necessary and proper to accomplish its general charitable, scientific and educational purposes
       consistent with maintaining its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) and its public charity status under section 509(a)(3).

All references to sections in these Articles refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended or to comparable sections of subsequent internal revenue laws.
FOURTH: No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to any director, employee or other individual, partnership, estate, trust or corporation having a personal or private interest in the corporation. Compensation for services actually rendered and reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in attending to the affairs of this corporation shall be limited to reasonable amounts. No part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation to an extent that would disqualify it for tax exemption under Section 501(c)(3), and this corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles or of any By-laws adopted thereunder, this corporation shall not take any action not permitted by the laws which then apply to this corporation.

FIFTH: The internal affairs of the corporation shall be regulated by its Board of Directors, as described in the By-laws. Upon dissolution of the corporation, its assets shall be disposed of exclusively for the purposes of the corporation or distributed to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes which shall, at the time, qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3).
